You must ensure that you have received education covering all topics within the Mandatory Core Content along with the specified hours for the divisions. You must also have education covering the divisions within the Flexible Core content. You are not required to cover all the topics within that division. You must meet the total number of hours that are listed for each division. Distributive education may be used as part of the Mandatory or Flexible Core Content for up to 10 hours. Please refer to the NREMT web site <http://www.nremt.org/about/newsletter.asp> for more information pertaining to distributive education.

I hereby affirm that the information above is true and correct.
